THE CRYSTAL BALL OF QUANTUM

KCCLA'S CHRISTMAS MOCK ADJUDICATION

Wednesday 22 November 2017

6.00pm for registration 6.30pm for the event

Turner & Townsend, One New Change, London EC4M 9AF

You and your guests are invited to witness this mock adjudication following the reconstruction of that famous wizards' school virtually destroyed by "he who cannot be named". The contract is NEC4 Magic Option, which assumes that travel in time allows a genuine prospective assessment. The issues debated will cover the nature of the obligation to take all reasonable and magical steps to mitigate the effects of compensation events, as well as considering premium rates for flying elves to avoid the need for extensive scaffolding for the Dumbledore memorial tower.

The mock adjudication will be led by Paul Reed QC, Hardwicke Chambers, as adjudicator, James Davison, 3 Paper Buildings, and Jonathan Gold, Sheridan Gold, as advocates, Paul Greenwell, Turner & Townsend, and Claudia Otto, Kerman & Co LLP, as expert witnesses and Anne Wright, Lawrence Stephens, and Tim Tapper, Turner & Townsend, as the clients.

A drinks reception will follow the event, kindly hosted by Turner & Townsend.

To reserve a place for yourself and a guest please contact Jackie Ryan at jackie.ryan@turntown.co.uk
